FINANCIAL MARKET

OVERVIEW

The ICMA Primary Market Certificate (PMC) is an essential qualification for those with an interest or involvement in the debt primary markets.

The programme examines the entire life cycle of bond issuance, from considering the financing choices through to the closing of transactions in the marketplace. While the course examines the theoretical principles underpinning the markets and the instruments and financing techniques that are available, emphasis is placed on interpreting and using that knowledge in practical case studies. Candidates who gain this qualification will have all the requisite tools to add value to their company's activities in the primary markets.

Attending the programme will help you:

- Understand what is involved with syndication and origination
- Review pricing decisions and launch requirements
- Assess current liability management techniques, their applicability and outcomes
- Explore events of default, debt ranking and covenants

The programme places emphasis on current market practice and this is reflected in the delivery, by a combination of the course director and key market professionals.
